Ottawa to host 2016 Canadian Plowing Championships

Ottawa, ON-- The Ottawa Carleton Plowmen's Association is pleased to announce they will be hosting the 2016 Canadian Plowing Championships (CPC-16) on August 23 – 27, 2016 at Anderson Links Golf Club, 4175 Anderson Road, Ottawa, Ontario.

The competition will involve competitors from across Canada representing their province in one of three plowing classes: Senior Conventional, Senior Reversible and Junior Conventional. Winners will represent Canada in the 2017 World Ploughing Competition in Kenya.

The 2016 Ottawa Carleton Plowing Match will be held at the same location on Saturday August 27.

The competition will include a market, display and events area in addition to the plowing competition. More details on the Canadian Plowmen's Organization, sponsorship opportunities and the 2016 competition are at www.canadianplowing.ca.
